

CONTENTS

Preface	v
Part I Introduction to Tuberculosis and Its Control	1
1 The Global Burden of Tuberculosis John M. Grange	3
2 Determinants of the Tuberculosis Burden in Populations Klaus Jochem and John Walley	33
3 A Critique of the Global Effort: Do Tuberculosis Control Programmes Only Exist on Paper? — A Perspective From a Developing Country M. Angélica Salomão	49
4 The Politics of Tuberculosis: The Role of Process and Power Gill Walt	67
5 Public Health and Human Rights: The Ethics of International Public Health Interventions for Tuberculosis Paul Pronyk and John Porter	99

Part II	The Current International Structure	121
6	Tuberculosis in High-Prevalence Countries — Current Control Strategies and Their Technical and Operational Limitations Klaus Jochem and John Walley	123
7	Tuberculosis Treatment in the Public and Private Sectors — Potential for Collaboration Ruairí Brugha and Anthony B. Zwi	167
8	Involving the Private Medical Sector in Tuberculosis Control: Practical Aspects Mukund Uplekar	193
9	Compliance Versus Adherence: Just a Matter of Language? The Politics and Poetics of Public Health Jessica A. Ogden	213
Part III	Tuberculosis Treatment from the Patient's Perspective: Social and Economic Dimensions of Treatment-Seeking for Tuberculosis	235
10	The Economics of Tuberculosis Diagnosis and Treatment Susan Foster	237
11	Socio-Cultural Dimensions in Tuberculosis Control Sheela Rangan and Mukund Uplekar	265
12	Tuberculosis and HIV — Perspectives from Sub-Saharan Africa Andrew Ustianowski, Peter Mwaba and Alimuddin Zumla	283

13	Tuberculosis in Ethnic Minority Populations in Industrialised Countries Freda Festenstein and John M. Grange	313
14	Gender Issues in the Detection and Treatment of Tuberculosis Patricia Hudelson	339
Part IV Alternative Approaches and Future Directions		357
15	The Way Forward: An Integrated Approach to Tuberculosis Control John Porter, Jessica A. Ogden and Paul Pronyk	359
16	Demystifying the Control of Tuberculosis in Rural Bangladesh A. M. R. Chowdhury, J. Patrick Vaughan, Sadia Chowdhury and Fazle H. Abed	379
17	A Response by Nurses to the Challenge of Tuberculosis in the United Kingdom and Russia Virginia Gleissberg	397
18	Tuberculosis and Health Sector Reform Elizabeth Tayler	423
19	Applying Human Rights to Tuberculosis Control David Nyheim	449
20	The Owl and the Pussycat Went to Sea: Moving Towards Intersectoral Policies to Prevent the Unequal Distribution of Tuberculosis Carolyn Stephens	467

- 21 Educational Approaches in Tuberculosis Control:
Building on the 'Social Paradigm' 489
Thelma Narayan and Ravi Narayan